THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.

A National Convention of the Republican party will meet at Chicago, Wednesday, the 23d of June next, for the nomination of candidates to be supported for President and Vice President at the next election.

Republicans, and all who will co-operate with them in supporting the nominees of the party, are invited to choose two delegates from each Congressional District, four at large from each State, two from each Territory, and two from the District of Columbia, to represent them in the Convention.

THOMAS B. REIGH, Secretary.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

Rooms of the REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, MILWAUKEE, February 14, 1880.

A State Convention of delegates representing the Republican party of Wisconsin, and of all who will co-operate with them in supporting the nominees of the party, is hereby called to meet at the Capital in Madison, at twelve o'clock M., on Wednesday, May 27th, 1880, for the purpose of placing in nomination an electoral ticket of ten electors to be supported by the party at the next Presidential election, and also to select twenty delegates, (two from each Congressional District and four from the State at large,) to represent the Republican party of Wisconsin in the National Republican Convention, which is called to meet at Chicago on the 23d of June, A. D. 1880, and to transact such other business as may be deemed necessary.

Each Senate and Assembly District is entitled to two delegates in the Convention.

The more business booms the more disappointed are the leaders of the Democracy.

Two or three more blunders on the part of the Democrats—a little more extra session, for instance—will take their party out of the next general election.

The joint resolution ordering an investigation of the State Hospital seems to have woken up some of the Madison people.
Why make a fuss about it if all is straight in Denmark?

One of the mistakes the Democrats make is supposing that the Republicans will split at the next election in the face of the revolutionary policy of the Democratic party.
That is not the time the Republicans will split.

The reports come from many portions of the State that the feeling is growing that Washington should be the Republican candidate. There is a power in him to solidify the party that does not exist in any other candidate.

Ben Hill is having a hard time of it in Congress. Blaine set down heavily upon him in the House, and he didn't get over it for months; and now Mrs. Belva Lockwood has given him a broadside which makes the nation laugh. Hill has now an antagonist that no man can scare.

Dennis Kearney has finally reached his level—that of a convict. His sentence to six months' imprisonment, and to pay a fine of one thousand dollars, will probably satisfy him that he has not unlimited authority to make incendiary speeches. For the next six months—unless he is released on a writ of habeas corpus—he will associate with the crowd with which he properly belongs—that of convicts and felons.

A boy eighteen years old has been sentenced to be hanged at Canton, Ohio, on the 25th of June, for murder committed at Massillon, last November. This is another instance of youthful depravity. The condemned boy had committed a burglary, and for fear that one Christian Spuhler might testify against him, he deliberately found him out, and shot him dead. This country has seen several executions of boys, the youngest having been hanged in New York a few years ago, he having been only sixteen.

The New York Tribune says: "The Southern Democrats have had such bad luck in getting seats in Congress and drawing salaries without ever having been elected, that they propose now to shorten the process and draw the salaries without taking the seats." This is illustrated by the example of a Kentucky member offering a bill to pay ten thousand dollars to one of his friends who claimed a seat twelve years ago which Congress decided he was not entitled to. The Southern members do not lack in schemes to help their friends and they have no modesty or conscience when they make a demand on the Treasury.

As stated in the Gazette yesterday, Governor Smith has appointed Mrs. John J. Fairbanks, of Milwaukee, a member of the Board of Charities and Reform, in place of Prof. C. H. Haskins, resigned.
The appointment is regarded an excellent one, and will give entire satisfaction to the other members of the Board. Mrs. Fairbanks is a lady of ability, of practical ideas, and is well informed on the subjects which will be brought to the attention of the Board. This makes the second woman that has been appointed on the Board of Charities—Mrs. William Pitt Lynde being the first.

A very important resolution was adopted by the Legislature on Tuesday—that of ordering an investigation into the management of the State Hospital. As might be expected, the Madison influence opposed such a resolution, and for what reason it would be difficult to tell, except that it did not want the affairs of that institution subjected to a searching investigation. The resolution reads as follows:

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That the Governor be and is hereby requested to appoint three competent and disinterested persons as a committee to investigate the affairs of the Wisconsin State Hospital for the Insane.
Said committee shall have power to send for persons and papers, administer oaths, employ such expert assistance as they may think necessary, and shall report to His Excellency the Governor, by the first day of January, 1881, together with their account for necessary expenses incurred in said investigation.

The State Hospital at Madison has been the subject of a good deal of talk which has not been complimentary. Its management has been somewhat peculiar, and the manner in which the Board of Trustees disposed of the hospital funds during the past year, has led some to think that the Board is getting too reckless, and this has brought up the question of investigation. We can not believe, however, that there is anything rotten in the management of the institution. The Trustees have probably taken unwarranted liberties with the funds in their charge, but we do not think that an investigation will reveal any corruption. It is well, however, to have the investigation, and thus satisfy the public on a question which has created not an inconsiderable amount of talk.

Among the county delegations in the Legislature of 1880, there has not been one more attentive to the business of the session than that of Rock county, and none has made fewer mistakes. Senator Richardson, who during the three previous sessions, took the lead in the Senate on all important State matters. He has proved himself one of the practical men of that body, and during his two terms has exacted as much salutary influence as any man in the State. If any man deserves thanks for being a faithful public servant it is Hamilton Richardson. He has done his duty well, and done it fearlessly.

In the proceedings in the Assembly, Mr.
Frank Lawrence took a prominent part, and it can be said of him, and it is something worth saying, that he never missed a roll call, attended every session, and was among the most industrious on the committee. On one or two questions he may have voted differently than some of his constituents wished, and this may be said of every member in the Legislature, but he did what he supposed was for the best interest of the people he represented, honestly and openly, and for this he is to be commended. There were none in the Assembly better informed on State affairs than Mr. Lawrence, and he brought his knowledge into practical use.

The First District was again well represented by Mr. R. J. Burdick. He is a quiet man, full of practical information, never lacking in industry, and did as much steady work as any man in the Assembly.
And Dr. Lord, who represented the First District, was one of the most zealous members. He performed a great deal of labor, exercised good judgment in his action on the various measures, and made a gallant fight on the capital punishment bill, making the leading speech in favor of the measure.

THE CLOSING OF THE LEGISLA- TURE.

The thirty-third annual session of the Legislature closed to-day (Wednesday), having been in session sixty-three days.
The session has been seven days longer than the one last year, and twelve days shorter than the session of 1878. There has been a great deal of legislation gone through with, but no very important measures have been passed. The Legislature of 1880 has been quite a conservative one—of fair ability, and if its action, lacks important results, it will be found that it has done no particular harm. As a matter of course, a great many sections of the revised statutes have been amended, but we believe no radical change has been made.

The State tax budget for 1880, as passed by the Legislature, foots up $453,000, against only $348,000 in 1879. The cause of this seemingly large increase, is that the Legislature was called upon to make unexpected appropriations, which amount to $205,000. The burning of the Delavan Institute last September, occasioned an appropriation of $31,000; the Milwaukee county insane asylum, $75,000 more; and the Milwaukee Industrial School for Girls, $15,000. The expense of managing the insane hospital has been increased some $50,000 over the amount estimated. These important items were put in the budget of this year, and have swelled the amount of the State tax to nearly twice the amount of 1879.

Among the bills passed which deserve special notice, is the one regarding the keeping of the insane in counties. The new law provides that while each county has to pay $1.50 per week for each of its inmates in the State hospital, the State will pay the counties $1.50 per week for each inmate they properly maintain in their county asylums. There are, however, only a few counties in the State that have an asylum which meets the requirements of the law. Rock county, and most of the Southern counties in the State, are among the number.

A BAD WIFE.

Rockford, Ill., March 16—John Ragan, of South Street, this city, while asleep last night, was slashed with a razor in the hands of his wife, the blow cutting his nose off, slitting his lip, and opening a ghastly wound across his face and neck. She then fled to the house of a neighbor and concealed herself, leaving her husband weltering in his gore. Ragan nearly bled to death before assistance came, and it is doubtful whether his nose can be made to grow to the face again, though Dr. Pritchett is endeavoring to effect that result. Officer Welch this afternoon arrested Mrs. Ragan and lodged her in jail. No cause for the act is known.

CRIMINAL.

Special to the Gazette.

CHICAGO, March 17—Martin Powers and wife, who arrived here from Ireland some three months ago, and who have been married two months, while at breakfast this morning in a despondent mood, on account of being out of work and jealousy, Powers became suddenly insane, and fired three shots at his wife, producing two scalp wounds, the third entering the mouth with fatal effect. He then shot himself twice behind the ear, dying instantly.

WINCHESTER, Ill., March 17—One hundred masked men battered down the door of the jail at one o'clock, overpowered the keeper and proceeded to the cell of Joe J.
Fields, and riddled the body with bullets, and left him dead. They quickly disappeared. Fields murdered James Padgett on the 24th of February.

ROCKFORD, Ill., March 17—John Reagan quarrelled with his wife last night and attacked her while she was sleeping, cutting off her nose and otherwise disfiguring her.
Her injuries will probably prove fatal.

PONTIAC, Ill., March 17—Deboir was hanged here this afternoon. He made a full confession.

KEARNEY'S SENTENCE.

Dennis Goes to the House of Correction for Six Months.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16—The Police Judge this morning sentenced Dennis Kearney to six months' imprisonment in the House of Correction and to pay a fine of $1,000. The magnitude of the sentence was a surprise to Kearney, who expected a nominal punishment. It is probable that he will take the case to the Supreme Court on a writ of habeas corpus.

In passing sentence on Kearney the Judge said it was not his duty to punish the prisoner for similar offenses in the past, but to confine himself strictly to the consideration of the present case. He would pass judgment, without prejudice, feeling, or vindictiveness, but the sentence imposed would indicate his estimate of the gravity of the offense. He then passed sentence as before stated.

Kearney received his sentence in silence but his features expressed the utmost surprise and indignation. He had previously stated that he had expected to get off with a fine of $20 or thereabouts, and, after leaving the court-room, he freely expressed his anger and chagrin, denouncing the penalty as outrageous, and claiming that he would beat it probably.

In expectation of a nominal sentence his counsel neglected to demand a jury trial, and having no recourse in that direction at once filed an appeal to the Supreme Court, furnishing bonds in the sum of $3,000.

On the streets many expressions of gratification at Judge Rives' action are heard on all sides.

DEMOCRACY.

What the Hon. John G. Thompson Thinks On the Presidential Question.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 16—The Hon.
John G. Thompson, the Democratic war-horse of Ohio, passed through this city this morning en route to Washington. In conversation with a reporter he said he had been attending a meeting of the Ohio State Committee. He thought that the effect of having the Convention at Cincinnati would be to carry the State for the Democratic nominee. He said positively that Tilden was not the second choice of Ohio, and that Gov. Bishop was wrong in so saying. Bishop, he said, had a hankering after the nomination for Vice-President. Mr. Thompson thought Tilden could not carry New York, and would not be nominated. He concluded by saying that Senator Wallace and himself were in harmony, and would defeat Tilden with almost any good man.

The Democratic County Committee will meet here on Thursday, when the Randall and Wallace factions it is said will make a desperate fight for the supremacy in Western Pennsylvania. Tilden's fate in this State will depend largely upon the result.
Tilden delegates to the State Convention will probably be appointed, though the friends of Wallace say that this action will lead to a split in the Committee. Anti-Tilden delegates were appointed in Fayette County to-day.

SENATOR KELLOGG.

A Resolution to Unseat Kellogg and Give Place to Spafford.

WASHINGTON, March 16—The Committee on Privileges and Elections to-day decided by a party vote to report a resolution unseating and seating Spafford as Senator from Louisiana. Although this action was expected it was supposed that Kellogg would not be disturbed until after election, because the action is so unfairly partisan that its discussion in the Senate will have an important effect in the next campaign.

It is known, however, several of the leading Democratic Senators have expressed themselves only as opposed to the reopening of the case of Mr. Kellogg—some on the score of expediency, and some on the ground that the case was res adju-diata, and that there was no power to reopen it. It is quite probable that if the report of the committee's action is passed upon, it will fall to receive the vote of the majority of the Senate. The report in this case will give the Republicans just the opportunity for which they have been praying, to stir up all the war rules, and make material for the next Presidential campaign. They ought to be very grateful to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

HENNI'S HELPER.

Feeling in the Roman Catholic Community on the Appointment of Bishop Heiss to be the Archbishop of Cincinnati.

MILWAUKEE, March 16—The confirmation of Rt. Rev. Michael Heiss, bishop of La Crosse, as coadjutor to Archbishop Henni, with the right of succession, meets with pretty general favor here in Catholic circles, although it had been anticipated and hoped, and especially in Irish Catholic circles, that Bishop Spalding, of Peoria, Illinois, would be appointed by Pope Leo. One objection that is taken to Bishop Heiss is his advanced age. In German Catholic circles great joy is manifested at the appointment. It is also understood that the selection of Bishop Heiss was the direct personal wish of Archbishop Henni himself. The coadjutor is well known in this city and throughout the diocese. He was formerly pastor of St. Mary's church, in this city, and has always been a confident and adviser of the archbishop. In fact Bishop Heiss and Archbishop Henni entered the ministry together, and ever since have been warm personal friends. During the archbishop's recent indisposition, Bishop Heiss has filled all the appointments in this diocese, and last Saturday directed the consecration of St. Francis' Seminary. In general the appointment may be said to give great satisfaction in German Catholic circles, and to have created some disappointment among the English speaking Catholics.

MILWAUKEE REGISTRY.

How the Republicans Stole a March on the Democrats.

MILWAUKEE, March 16—The registry boards to receive the registration of voters for the spring election, began their two-days' session this evening. The Republicans have treated their Democratic opponents to a great surprise, and in a way that insures the municipal election to the Republicans by a large majority. The registry law, as it now prevails in Wisconsin, permits the registration of voters by names alone at the first session of the board, but thereafter the registration can only be made by the individual in person; and a registration must be made in order for a citizen to vote.
The test case before the supreme court has not yet been decided. The hip-lock that the Republicans have succeeded in getting consists, of their presenting to-day, a list of names aggregating over two thousand persons, all of which were duly enrolled and are Republicans. The Republican committee has been at work for about three months perfecting their registry, while the Democrats have not only been idle, but actually forgot about it or failed to appreciate the necessity of labor in that direction. Inasmuch as the board adjourns to-morrow and subsequent registration must be done in person, there is no likelihood that the Democrats will be able to poll anything like a full vote.
This afternoon the Republicans are wild with delight at outgeneraling their opponents, and the really decisive blow in the approaching spring election in Milwaukee may be said to have been struck by the Republicans to-day, and the contest may be considered practically ended. Postoffice Henry P. Kane, who has planned the work, is receiving congratulations from his fellow politicians.

GARCELONISM.

AUGUSTA, March 16—Garcelon resumed his testimony to-day, and having admitted having drawn warrants on appropriations made, he exhibited vouchers for $374, and said there were $235 expended for which he had no receipts. Large sums money were paid to the committees for visiting various public institutions, and the pay-rolls of the police were not preserved. He was asked if he knew anything while Governor of Georgia, substitutions and other tampering with the returns. His answer was an emphatic denial. He did not think there was a conspiracy, but thought there was a Judas in the camp.

SUICIDE.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., March 16—L. L.
Lane, a well known citizen of Minneapolis shot himself through the head this morning. His wife left the house to draw a pail of water, and Lane went into an upper room, where his three small children were,
and drawing a revolver fired a shot through his head, causing instant death. When his wife returned he was found on the floor with life extinct. No cause is given for the act, save that he has been in depressed spirits during the past two or three days.

Rev. Dr. Harvey, Prof. Green, Dr. Bartine, other others equally trustworthy, certify over their own signatures to the marvelous efficacy of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, in the diseases for which it is recommended, it is time to dismiss doubts on the subject.

THE ADJOURNMENT.
MADISON, March 15—The Wisconsin Legislature of 1880 adjourned sine die at 11 a. m. to-day.

In the Senate, Burrows, of Dane, made a speech, and in the Assembly, Minor, of Door, closed the proceedings with remarks.

STATISTICAL.

The length of the session has been sixty-three days. The bills passed number two hundred and eighty-three, of which one hundred and seventy-four originated in the Assembly, and one hundred and forty-nine in the Senate.

Direct appropriations made $419,000 the principal measures passed are constitutional amendments for biennial sessions, and female suffrage acts allowing cities and villages to appeal from assessment equalizations of County Boards providing for an investigation into the affairs of the State Insane Hospital; rebuilding Deaf mute Institution at Delavan; repealing the law making railroads liable for accidents happening to employes from carelessness of other employes; reorganizing State militia and providing for an annual encampment; giving State insurance commissioners broader powers over foreign insurance companies; providing for individual liability of stockholders in banks; making June 10th of this year a legal holiday; providing that insane persons may at the solicitation of friends be tried by a jury before being committed to the insane hospital; correcting the registry law so that any one by proving he is a voter may not be debarred from voting.

THE MUNICIPAL COURT.

To the Editor.

On returning to the city to-day my attention was called to an article in your paper of the fifteenth, reflecting upon my official act in recommending the postponement of the bill for a Municipal Court in the county. The idea of a Municipal Court originated or first took form in the Board of Supervisors, who passed a resolution by a bare majority of two, requesting their representatives in the Legislature to procure the passage of an act establishing such a Court. A bill for that purpose was forwarded by the Clerk of the Board to Assemblyman Lord, who introduced it into the Assembly on the 4th day of February. The provision of the bill being published in the city papers met with almost unanimous disapproval, as calculated to increase rather than diminish our court expenses, and the idea of its passage was consequently abandoned. A new bill was then drawn by some of the attorneys of Janesville, but was not perfected till Monday of the last week of the session. It was immediately considered by the delegation, aided by several prominent citizens who were at Madison at the time, and as it proposed the establishment of an entirely different court from that asked for by the Board of Supervisors, the delegation and the citizens present decided that it would be unwise to report it, and the project of passing any bill relating to the matter at this session was regarded as abandoned.

Subsequently our representatives in the Assembly, thinking themselves instructed to pass some bill of the kind without consultation with me, made some radical changes in the original bill, sent them by the clerk of the Board of Supervisors and decided to pass it to a law. Hearing of this I immediately procured a copy of the amended bill and as time did not permit of its being published, submitted its provisions to the District Attorney and such other lawyers as the exceedingly limited time allowed me to consult, and was advised by one and all that the bill was "entirely too crude and imperfect to carry out the wishes of the Board of Supervisors." The bill was passed through the Assembly under suspension of the rules on Thursday, and on Friday sent to the Senate. On the following day all business of the session was practically closed, thus giving no time for any expression of opinion from the members of the Board of Supervisors or the community, in regard to its merits.
Under these circumstances, but two courses were left open for me, either to impose upon the county the civil consequences of a law condemned by its highest legal advisor and unendorsed by the Board of Supervisors or the public, or to leave the matter for wiser and more deliberate action, by recommending its indefinite postponement. I did what I believed my duty in the matter and am willing to abide the results.

BACK FROM BLISS.

Wonderful Materialization Reported by a Trustworthy Gentleman of New York.

New York, March 16—Mr. Asa L.
Hatch, a wealthy business man of this city, tells a remarkable story of spirit materialization. In November, 1877, his only daughter, Lizzie, died of consumption, aged 22. Mr. Hatch was not a believer in spirit manifestations, but while on a visit west, last June, his wife induced him to visit with her a materializing medium in Terre Haute. From that visit began a series of experiences which, as Mr. Hatch tells them to the world, are of a remarkable character, and which he says still continue. Mr.

Hatch, in conversing to-day at his office of the phenomena, said:

We have been completely reastered to our daughter, or, rather, she has been restored to us. We can converse with her and have come to consider that we have not lost her. When we first met her in the materialized form at Terre Haute the recognition was perfect on both sides. We sat down with her and had a long conversation. She looked even more beautiful than she had looked in this life, but anyone could have recognized her from her portrait. She spoke of family things at home; told us of her spirit doings, and assured us that she would now visit us as often as the opportunity offered. Upon our asking her if she felt strong enough to play upon the piano, she turned, and after touching the keys of the instrument, as if testing her powers, sat down and began playing a most beautiful and touching air. When we came most marvelous was that when she sat down to the piano her full form was of natural proportions and height, but gradually it began to dematerialize and vanish from our sight, until the head, upper part of the shoulders and hands only remained visible. The head and face were then brought close to the piano, and even moved to and fro as the fingers touched the keys.

A Rise in Nails.

Rochester Herald.

A pretty good story in connection with the recent rise in nails is told to the expense of a prominent hardware merchant in a neighboring city. The gentleman aforementioned is a bachelor, and has several pretty cousins living in Rochester. The young ladies are, of course, very fond of their relative and he of course returns the country affection. When nails were $1.70 per keg he invested his spare funds in about 7,000 kegs, and held them for a rise. He promised his cousins that when the price reached $4 per keg he would buy each of them a silk dress. The figure was reached and the young ladies of course, expected him to fulfill his promise, and had compared notes as to the exact shade of beauty; but our friend saw a way out of the difficulty, as he thought, and persuaded the girls to wait until nails reached $5 per keg, when he would present each one with a silk-sequre.

His idea was that probably no such figure would be paid, and in that way he would exchange a certainty for an uncertainty. But nails kept going up until they were quoted at $4. Another appeal for the fulfillment of the promise brought out a suggestion that if the importunate damsels would possess their souls in patience until nails were quoted at $5 a keg, they should each receive a set of diamonds.
The proposition was accepted, and the shrewd fellow thought that he had got out of the scrape pretty easily. He was doomed, however, to pay the penalty of his rash promise, as it is said that nails were quoted at $6 within two days after.
It will be seen for the unfortunate victim of a combination of good and bad luck to avoid paying his promised reward for the remarkable patience and self-control which has been exercised by his fair cousins. The young ladies will be the envy of all their friends when those diamonds come.

PLEASANT HILL, Miss., July 5, 1879.

Messrs. MORGAN & ALLEN, 69 John St., New York City:
I pray God that you may be spared many years to relieve others as you have me and my child. I have been taking medicine, almost daily, for thirteen years with scarcely any benefit, until the "Constitution Water" was brought to my notice. I have attended to my household duties the past week, for the first time in three months, the past month was the first month that I have escaped my severe sick head-spells. I take great pleasure in recommending "Constitution Water" to all my suffering friends.

Very respectfully,
MRS. M. A. STETEN.

Ask your druggist for it.

Women and Children Trampled Under Foot—The Thrilling Scene in the Streets.

Japan Gazette.

Hundreds of carpenters were at work erecting temporary places of shelter, and repairing bridges; men engaged at clearing away the debris on the sites where their recent dwellings had stood; women walked about listlessly with children on their backs; groups of half a dozen or more old men, women and children gathered round little wood fires trying to keep warm in their bodies; streets rendered almost impassable by immense heaps of ashes, broken tiles, and other debris; tattered bodies and weary faces, the poor creatures called forth from their homes with bundles on their shoulders to fly they knew not whither. The streets became blocked with the surging masses. Women and children were trampled under foot, and many who fell in the crowd never rose again; little children were seen looking for their parents, while the air was rent with cries of rage, anguish and despair. Still they clung tenaciously to the few worldly possessions they had succeeded in bringing from their burning homes, thereby almost completely blocking up the narrow streets through which the masses were slowly threatening their way. At length the police intervened and caused numbers to throw their bundles into the river, or anywhere else out of the way so as to facilitate the escape of the people from the frightful death which threatened them, and which was gaining on them fast. Sixty-eight streets, containing 11,404 houses, were burned, rendering over 40,000 people homeless. It is estimated that thirty people were trampled to death in the streets, and one hundred wounded were conveyed to the hospital. Long before the fire reached the foreign settlement the residents felt anxious and began to pack up. But this appears to have been an almost needless task, for when the fire did reach them there was no time to be found in carrying their goods and chattels away; this was particularly the case when the residence of the missionary ladies at No. 11 ignited. Everything had been got ready for flight, but had to be left in the house, as no coolies were to be found willing to undertake the task of removing the boxes of clothing. The American legation was in imminent danger for some time, and Mr. Clatons' hotel ignited several different times, but each time the flames were successfully suppressed. The residence of Bishop Williams, of the American Episcopal mission, was burned.

Beware Fraud

To protect the public against imitators we have put the word in each genuine

BENSON'S CAPCINE PLASTER.

Do not allow some other Plaster to be palmed off under the name of "CAPCINE" or "CAPSICUM" with the assurance that it is as good—Bear in mind that the only object dealers can have, is the fact that they can buy Spurious imitations at half the price of the genuine.

BRIEFINGS.

—Rush the railroad.
—St. Patrick's day in the morning.
—Miss Gavin reads at the Opera house this evening.
—Dr. E. L. Carr, of Johnstown, was shaking hands with friends on the street yesterday.
—D. D. Bennett left yesterday afternoon for Kansas City, and expects to go into railroad.
—Mrs. B. M. Addy returned to-day from a three months' visit with her parents in Burlington, Wis.
—John Slightam is getting his new street sprinkler ready, and will wet down the dust occasionally, until the season commences.
—The water power owners at their meeting yesterday chose Hon. Sat Clark and Captain Edward Ruger, as a Committee to visit Washington, and present the facts before the Congressional Committee.
—An informal reception was given the Ripon College Club at the Pender house last evening, after the entertainment, Songs by the Pender House Quartet, the Ripon College Club, piano solos, by Miss Lizzie E. Battle, and recitations by Miss Anna Kunkle, which were greatly enjoyed by all present.
—George Sheffner is now suffering from a severe accident which befell him at the foundry of the Harris works, where he is employed. By a mischance some molten iron slopped over and run down into his boot, burning his foot in a horrible manner, and from the result of which he is suffering great pain.
—Mr. George K. Steele, the trusty advance agent of Burr Robbins, arrived in this city last evening. He will route the show this season as usual. He will leave for the East next week on important business connected with the show. The ring force of the circus is already complete and will be the foremost in point of ability and attraction of any on the road.

FACTS ABOUT FIREMEN.

Last evening Washington Engine Company No. 1, held their annual election, resulting in the choice of:
Foreman—John P. Ehrlinger.
Asst. Foreman—Will Brooks.
Secretary—George Ehrlinger.
Treasurer—August Bauman.
Foreman Ehrlinger now enters upon his third term. He is a good one, and deserves the honor.
W. C. Phillips has resigned his membership in Water Witch Engine Company No. 2, owing to the fact that he is about to change his residence to such a distance from the engine house, as to render it difficult for him to attend promptly to the needed duties. No. 2's boys regret to part with Mr. Phillips, as he is one of the most active, but then—what is their loss is somebody else's gain. Joseph Benoit has been chosen to fill the vacancy, and Charles Schwartz has been elected a member to fill the vacancy caused by Charles Tall's promotion.
Will Airls has resigned his membership in Engine Company No. 1.
A. A. Dresser, the engineer of No. 1, is on the sick list, having caught a severe cold by exposure during service at the last fire.

THE GLEEFUL CLUB.
Last evening the Ripon College Glee Club gave a concert at Lippin's Music hall. The audience was small, and there were not many of the musicians of the city present. The entertainment was one of fair merit. Prof. Stillman, who served as accompanist and director, played several piano solos, which were indeed fine, and which called forth hearty applause. One of the first vocal numbers on the programme was "The Young Musicians," which proved a happy opening number, as it seemed to impress the audience with the fact that the Club appeared, not as professional artists, but as a jolly band of students, prepared to do their best in entertaining their hearers, and the feeling that they were over-rating themselves and attempting impossibilities was entirely done away with. The rest of the programme was sprightly, varied, and brought in many unique turns. The voices of the Club blend well, and they did some excellent work. Mr. Alfred Jones sang several solos, and showed a bass voice, remarkable in some respects. It has not a very great range, and borders more upon the baritone than the bass, but some of his tones were very fine. College songs formed a large portion of the programme, and there was a generous sprinkling of fun and frolic. The Club appear to-night at Broadhead, and to-morrow evening at Waterville. The members are Geo. Hatch, E. J. Roberts, of '80; A. J. Whiting, H. H. Shaw, of '81; C. C. Campbell, F. K. Sanders, of '82; L. M. McNeil, A. Jones, of '83.

MISS ANNA RICE.
Miss Anna Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. R. Rice, of Harmony, passed to the heavenly home on Saturday, March 13, 1890, aged 19 years. She was a dear and affectionate daughter and sister, specially endeared, perhaps from the fact that for the past few years of her life she has been invalid, watched over and cared for tenderly by parents, brothers, and sisters. She was gentle and lovable in her disposition, and had a large circle of friends. With no fear of dying, she passed calmly and hopefully away. Rev. G. W. Lawrence administered the consolations of the gospel to the bereaved family, and a numerous gathering of friends.

The youngest of our household band Precedes us to the better land—That heavenly country hope brings near,
Earth's toiling pilgrim band to cheer.
Is beauties, from our sight concealed,
To her rest soul are now revealed;
She sees as we shall see ere long;
When we join the angelic throng.
Then patiently will bide our time, Till called to that celestial clime, Upon that fairer, brighter shore,
To meet our darling gone before.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.
How it was Observed by the Sons and Daughters of Erin in this City.
To-day, bright and early, there was the usual hurrying to and fro incident to St. Patrick's day in the morning. Before 8 o'clock the members of St. Patrick's Total Abstinence and Benevolent Society gathered at their hall, donned their regalia, unfurled their flags, and soon after formed a procession which drew the usual sidewalk crowd along the line of march. The Temperance Band headed the procession, and appeared in their new uniforms, with John Hogan for Drum Major. The new uniforms showed up finely, and are indeed such a warrant the members in feeling proud. They are of dark blue with a brilliant brightening of gilt, and with cross belts bearing the music pouches, and other trappings which made them appear rich and showy. The Band have provided themselves with helmets, of the Knight style, with red plumes. There are few bands in the country which are now as well uniformed. The Society followed the programme already made public. They proceeded to St. Patrick's church, where mass was said. Then followed a street parade. At noon a sumptuous dinner was spread in the hall of the Society, and all hands partook of the feast with a relish. The procession was returned and this afternoon marched from the hall to the depot to greet Miss Gavin who is to read here to-night at the Opera house. The lady was given a cordial greeting and was escorted to Father Doyle's residence.

Beyond these features of the day there was little more in the line of celebration, except such as was of an informal and social nature, and of no marked public interest. The usual gathering for speech-making was done away with this year, the time being well occupied without it. This evening the readings of Miss Gavin at the Opera house will draw a crowd and will be the fitting finish to the day.

THIRD ASSEMBLY DISTRICT.
The Choosing of Delegates to the Republican State Convention.
In accordance with the published call a Republican convention of the Third District was held to-day, to choose delegates for the State convention. It was called to order at noon, and was organized by the election of Mr. S. S. Northrop, of Clinton, as Chairman, and O. D. Rowe, of Fulton, as Secretary.

On motion, the Chairman appointed as Committee on Credentials, R. T. Powell, S. G. Colley and Robert Barless. Adjournment was then taken until 2 o'clock p. m.

On reconvening the Committee reported the following delegates, and the report was adopted: Clinton—F. C. Bates, A. C. Stannard, E. F. Clark, O. Hill.
Clinton—S. S. Northrop, R. M. Benson, G. W. LaMonte, H. Pierce, John Conley.
Fulton—S. G. Colley, G. H. Crosby, C. Ross.
Fulton—G. E. Cowan, E. Wikom, R. T. Powell, H. Brice, Oscar Rowe.
La Fayette—H. F. Fales, J. E. Gleason.
Harmony—Andrew Barnes, W. Akin, N. N. Jackson.
Lima—C. D. Godfrey, N. M. Gleason, A. Dixon.
Bradford—William Gardner, James McNeel.

Mr. Bates introduced a resolution favoring Blaine as the nominee of the National Convention. This was tabled.
A motion to call the roll and have each delegate name his favorite candidate, was amended by a resolution expressing the determination of the convention to stand by whoever should be the nominee, and then both motion and amendment were likewise tabled.

The balloting for delegates to the State convention then proceeded, and resulted in the election of Dr. S. L. Lord, who had a majority in the informal ballot, and who was then made the choice by acclamation, the vote being unanimous. The convention after several ballots chose as the other delegate, S. Northrop.

Adjournment was then taken.

STREET COMMISSIONERSHIP.
The new act providing for the office of Street Commissioner in this city, has been published. The act so amends the city charter that any meeting of the Council during May, in any year, the Mayor shall nominate a Street Commissioner, who, on being confirmed by a majority of the Aldermen, shall be duly elected for the ensuing year.
Such Street Commissioner shall take the oath of office and give a $1,000 bond, within five days after his appointment.

Within ten days after his confirmation he is to inspect all streets and highways of the city, sidewalks, ditches, bridges, etc., and report in writing to the Council, recommending in his opinion what is necessary, and placing in separate items in the order of the first, second, and third importance and necessity, and the Council shall consider this report, striking out or changing the order of any item, as may seem best, and notify the Street Commissioner of the action taken. Upon receiving this, the Commissioner shall proceed to have executed, under his supervision, all such necessary work or repairs, as shall be directed by the Common Council, in such manner and by such means as it may from time to time direct, as now provided for in the charter, but in no event shall said Commissioner incur any indebtedness otherwise than that provided for by the Council.

The Commissioner is also, when directed by the Court, to notify all persons liable to pay a poll tax, as contained in a list to be furnished him by the City Clerk, on or before the first Monday in May in each year, and to collect the same, or credit the persons with work on the streets. When collected the money is to be paid in to the City Treasurer, and it is to be expended, under the direction of the Council upon the streets and highways.

The Commissioner is to have control of all teams and tools owned by the city, and employ such help as may be needed. He is to keep a time book of labor, and a record of all his transactions, and all bills for services or materials must be certified by him before allowed by the Council, and in no event can the Commissioner be interested in or own any teams employed by him.

The maximum price to be paid employees and teams shall be fixed by the Council, but the Commissioner is to have the selection and control of them. The Commissioner is to make an annual report of all his doings, or oftener if required by the Council.

The Council is to fix the salary or compensation of the Commissioner at least one week before his nomination, and this shall not be increased or diminished during his term of office.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.
At a regular meeting of Janesville City Division No. 2, S. of T., March 15, 1890, the following preamble and resolutions of fraternal sympathy and brotherly and sisterly regard, reported by special committee, appointed by Worthy Patriarch S. A. Hudson, were unanimously adopted by the Division:
WHEREAS, Death has invaded the ranks of our Order in this city, and an esteemed member of our circle of temperance workers has been removed from our midst, to take his place, as we trust, in a higher and nobler sphere of opportunity and spiritual endeavor; therefore

Resolved, 1. That in the death of our late respected associate, Brother Pest Worthy Patriarch, E. C. Bailey, the Division mourns the departure of a faithful, conscientious and efficient worker on behalf of the good cause of reform which our Order represents.
2. That our warmest fraternal regards and sympathies are hereby tendered to the bereaved wife and children, as also to the stricken father and mother of our deceased brother, praying that they may find sweet consolation in the hope of life immortal, where the broken family circles of earth shall be made whole.
3. As one after another, our temperance workers are passing away, may we who remain be more fully mindful of our higher duties, and press forward with greater moral earnestness in our mission of reform, whose significant motto is "Love, Purity and Fidelity."
4. The papers of the city are requested to give place to these resolutions, in their daily and weekly issues.

LIMA.
—There was an entertainment conducted in the school house at Lima Center, on the evening of March 6th. After declarations, dialogues, &c., spelling commenced. In this part of the proceedings a lively interest was manifested by the large and respectable audience. After a long and sharp contest the honors were carried off by A. D. Vance, Professor Sibley, of Janesville, who presented, and on being called upon responded in a brief and very appropriate address.

A CARD.

"I do not hesitate to say that the PARVIAN STURP has claims to confidence equal if not superior to those of any medicine that has ever come to my knowledge. I have used it with great success for Dyspepsia and Colic." Sold by dealers generally. Sold in Janesville by Prentice & Evenson. mar1890edwlv

A Well-Garnished Toilet.
No toilet is complete without SOZODONT. It combines all that is needed to keep the mouth and teeth healthy, and imparts a delicious fragrance to the breath. Its use should never be intermitted, as the mouth needs to be kept pure and clean, and by nothing better than SOZODONT can this be effected. mar1890edwlv

SPALDING'S GLUE is indispensable in the house, because there are always small breaks occurring which it will repair. mar1890edwlv Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States.
